

courant.com/community/hc-community-articlesresults,0,4458198.formprofile

Courant.com

Your Reader-Submitted Articles

Total search results: 1

This page: 1 - 1

Return to previous page

Do a custom search

Submit an article

Windsor

Diane W. Whitney Joins Journey Home Board

People

Submitted by Laura Phillips Ward, Journey Home, Inc., on 2010-01-04.

Journey Home, a nonprofit organization founded in 2007 to spearhead the implementation of the Capitol Region's Ten Year Plan to End Homelessness, announces the appointment of four board of directors members: Diane W. Whitney of Windsor, Craig L. Sylvester of West Hartford, Bishop Tyrone Carlton Black of New Britain, and Francesca Martin of New Haven.

Diane W. Whitney is an attorney at Pullman & Comley, LLC. Prior to joining the firm in 2003, she worked at LeBoeuf Lamb Greene & MacRae and was an Assistant Attorney General in Connecticut from 1988-1992. Whitney is past president of the University of Connecticut Law School Foundation Board, chairman of the Greater Hartford Legal Aid Board, and is involved with numerous other organizations. She is a member of the Connecticut, American, and Hartford County Bar Associations. Whitney received her BA in English from William Smith College, her MAT from Colgate, and her JD from the University of Connecticut School of Law.

Journey Home, Inc. is a nonprofit organization founded in 2007 to spearhead the implementation of the Capitol Region's Ten Year Plan to End Homelessness.

In its work to end homelessness, Journey Home will coordinate and support city, town and state government, community based service organizations, local businesses, the faith based community, academia, advocates and individuals who themselves have experienced or are at risk of homelessness.

Based in Hartford, but serving a 29-town region, Journey Home's mission is foster a caring community that ensures a home for all. Journey Home gives life to this mission through encouraging collaboration, facilitating innovation and advocating for justice. For more information, visit www.journeyhomect.org.

E-mail This Article

Return to previous page

Do a custom search

1 - 1 of 1